

Succession Plan

In the event of the untimely death, disability, incapacitation and/or removal of the President/CEO, the current Chairman of the Board will step in as acting President/CEO until such time as the full Board of Directors can meet to appoint an Interim President/CEO. The full Board will then, in a timely fashion, search for a permanent President/CEO who will replace the Interim one.